

Mirelys Gomez

Administrative Assistant

Mirelys Gomez has five years of experience in administrative support, customer service, inventory management and office accounting. She joined the Department of Occupational Therapy in October 2012 as a Federal Work Student Lab Assistant, and later was hired as an Administrative Assistant. Her duties include supporting the faculty and students with technology assistance, the planning and organization of events, assisting with the program schedule, the admission process, and the maintenance of the students' records, maintaining office inventory and other related duties.