

Nova Southeastern University present a service event as part of

Two Tampa
Locations
October 17, 2018

One Fort Lauderdale
Location
October 20, 2018

Free Fall Risk-Screening

Student volunteers needed***

PT Day of Service is a global initiative to unite the physical therapy profession in improving our communities, to inspire others to participate in service and to educate the public on what physical therapy is and what we do as a profession!

Join the hundreds of physical therapists and student physical therapists in 55 countries volunteering to provide services to people around the world at PT Day of Service events.

To volunteer to participate in this event contact:

Aya Samhouri @ as3975@mynsu.nova.edu

To learn more about Global PT Day of Service visit:

<http://ptdayofservice.com>

*PT Day of Service logo used with permission of the Move Together foundation

This event will count as 2 service hours toward graduation requirements.

