Dual-Degree M.H.Sc./D.H.Sc.

DUAL-DEGREE MASTER OF HEALTH SCIENCE/DOCTOR OF HEALTH SCIENCE

This accelerated dual-degree program is designed for accomplished, motivated health care practitioners educated at the bachelor's level who desire a clinically applicable, postprofessional interdisciplinary doctoral degree.

The program is specifically appropriate for those practitioners who have a strong desire to teach within the health disciplines at the graduate level or assume advanced professional and institutional leadership roles within the health care delivery system.

The combined M.H.Sc./D.H.Sc. provides rigorous academic exposure to a wide range of topics pertinent to clinicians, health administrators, and health professions educators, including epidemiology, health care finance, statistics and research methods, conflict resolution, leadership studies, professional writing, health policy, global health issues, evidence-based medicine, medical informatics, and medical quality assurance/risk management. Students have the opportunity to engage in internships within their home community and capstone research experiences.

Graduates are equipped with the knowledge, skills, and experience to expand their professional roles in both clinical and nonclinical arenas. Study is primarily nonresidential and utilizes state-of-the-art, online course platforms that permit synchronous and asynchronous learning experiences.

Students are required to attend two one-week, on-campus institutes during the doctoral portion of their studies.

This accelerated track permits the motivated student to earn both a master's and doctoral degree, with 82 credits, from a respected, regionally accredited research institution within three–seven years of study.

Admissions Requirements

Prospective dual M.H.Sc./D.H.Sc. students are selected by the Committee on Admissions, which considers the overall qualities of applicants and their suitability for this course of study. Areas of consideration include application content, academic record, prior health care experience, letters of evaluation, and personal motivation. In special circumstances, a personal interview with members of the Committee on Admissions may be required.

1. Prior to matriculation, applicants must have completed a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited college or university.
2. Applicants should have earned a cumulative bachelor's degree G.P.A. at or above a 3.0 on a 4.0 scale to be eligible for regular admission.
3. Prior health care experience is required and is strongly considered in the admissions process. The dual M.H.Sc./D.H.Sc. is a postprofessional degree designed for health practitioners from a wide variety of disciplines, public health professionals, and health care administrators. The commonality exhibited by our students is the expert practice of a recognized health occupation at a professional level or five years of professional-level administrative experience in a health care organization with progressively increasing responsibilities over that time frame. The successful applicant's health profession may emphasize delivery of services to individual clients (e.g., PA, PT, R.N., LCSW) or be population based (Public Health or Health Administration). An appropriate level of professional practice is generally recognized by either health professions licensure (e.g., R.N., PT, PA), a national certification or registration (e.g., PA-C, RVT, RRT, FACHE), a recognized health professions academic credential (e.g., B.S.N.), or a combination of the above.

4. The successful administrative applicant will demonstrate at least five years of professional experience with increasing levels of responsibility in a health care setting. Professional experience will be documented by an organizational chart demonstrating the applicant's position within the organization and a letter of recommendation from a supervisor attesting to the applicant's level of responsibility within the organization. Health care administrators will also need to submit a statement concerning their career and professional goals within the health care environment. Fellowship or certification by a recognized health certifying body (e.g., FACHE) is desirable. Possession of a bachelor's degree is also necessary.

All questions regarding the appropriateness of an applicant's qualifications for admission can be discussed with the department chair or program director on an informal basis, but the official recommendations are made by the Committee on Admissions to the dean of the Dr. Pallavi Patel College of Health Care Sciences, who makes the final determination.

5. Applicants must take the Graduate Record Examination [GRE] and submit their scores [taken within five years of the date of matriculation] with their application documents.

STUDENTS ARE provisionally admitted to a degree-seeking program based on a review of unofficial transcripts or other specific program admission requirements. However, this admission includes a condition that final and official transcripts, documents, and requirements must be received within 90 calendar days from matriculation. If these final and official transcripts, documents, and/or requirements are not received by that time, the student will not be allowed to continue class attendance. Financial aid will not be disbursed to a provisional/conditional student until he or she has been fully admitted as a regular student (all admissions requirements have been approved by the college/program admissions office). Students who have an unpaid balance 30 days from the start of the term will be assessed a $100 late fee.

Computer Requirements

It is highly recommended that the student have access to a desktop or laptop consistent with a recent generation of Microsoft Windows [7 or 8], or Apple OS [10.8 or above], and compatible Microsoft Office software to include Word, PowerPoint, and Excel. FINANCIAL AID

The primary financial responsibility for a student's education rests with the student and his or her family, but economic circumstances for some families may make it necessary for the student to obtain assistance from other sources.

Various loans, scholarships, and grants are available to qualified students to help ease the high cost of a health professions education.
