

You can expect the following approximate costs:

- Tuition $11,265 per semester for seven semesters. Total tuition for the program is $78,855
- Post Acceptance Fees ($1,000 total)
  - Acceptance Fee (Due within 2 weeks of acceptance) - $500
  - Deposit (due February 15th) - $500
- Student activity fees - $450 per semester
- Health Professions Division General Access Fee - $145 per year
- Registration Fee - $30.00 per semester
- Student Health Insurance - $2,859 Total Annual
  - $1,341 billed in June 2018 – December 31, 2018
  - $1,518 billed in January 2019 – August 31, 2019
- Clinical Support Charge ($400 per semester for the three semesters of clinical training)
- Graduation fees - approximately $275
- Physical examination course equipment - Approximately $800
- Required books and other learning resources - $1500 - $2000
- Recommended books - $1000 - $1500
- NCCPA Review Course and books (optional) - $400
- NCCPA PANCE (National Entry Level Board Exam) - $475
- Florida State Licensing Fees (Initial) - Application fee - $100; Initial license fee - $200; Unlicensed activity fee - $5; Total Initial License fee - $305
- Parking - free on campus
- Computer lab, e-mail account, MDConsult database - free on campus
- Computer (home) and printer- approximately $1,500-2,000
- There is no campus housing. Information regarding apartments in the area is available here.