EDUCATION

- 1999 Doctor of Philosophy in Audiology and Speech Sciences
Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI
- 1987 Master of Science in Communicative Disorders
University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI
- 1985 Bachelor of Applied Arts and Sciences in Communicative Disorders
Minor: Physiological Psychology
San Diego State University, San Diego, CA
Summa Cum Laude
Voted Outstanding Graduate by Department Faculty
- 1979 Diploma of French Language and Certificate of Spoken French
Alliance Francaise, Paris, France

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- July, 2018 to Present Associate Professor, Department of Speech-Language Pathology, Nova Southeastern University, Ft. Lauderdale, FL
- August, 2014 to Present Executive Director, Voices of Hope for Aphasia, St Petersburg, FL, a community-based nonprofit organization serving people with aphasia
- September, 2010 to 2014 Post-Graduate Trainer, Northern Speech Services. Present national seminars.
- August, 2012 to 2013 Clinical Speech-Language Pathologist, Southern Health Care Management
- June, 2011 to December, 2011 Clinical Speech-Language Pathologist, St. Petersburg General Hospital
- August, 2010 to 2014 Adjunct Faculty, Nova Southeastern University. Teach graduate coursework in neuroscience in clinical doctorate program.
- August, 2004 to Dec 2010 Associate Professor, Communication Sciences & Disorders, University of South Florida
- Appointed Associate Chair of the Department, Fall 2003 to Spring 2005
- August, 2009 to 2010 Consultant, Steps Forward Therapy. Program development assistance for specialized aphasia rehabilitation program, St. Petersburg, FL

- 2009 Clinical Speech-Language Pathologist, pool, BayCare – St. Anthony’s Hospital, St. Petersburg, FL. Provide direct patient care in acute care and skilled nursing settings
- January, 2000 Assistant Professor, Communication Sciences and Disorders, to August, 2004 University of South Florida, Tampa, FL
- July, 1989 Head of Aphasia Services to December, 1999 Communicative Disorders Clinic, University of Michigan
Develop and implement cohesive research program; Plan, develop and supervise implementation of all aspects of program; Develop programmatic budget; Plan and develop marketing efforts for the unit; Represent the unit at local, state, and national level meetings and conferences; Clinical supervision of all clinical staff; Supervise assistant administrators and residential support staff
- September, 1995 Teaching Assistant and Instructor
to 1997 Department of Audiology and Speech Sciences, Michigan State University
Teach undergraduate courses in communication disorders, including Phonetics, Evaluation Methods in Speech/Language Pathology, and Oral Communication Principles
- September, 1992 Part-Time Graduate Faculty to 1995 Speech-Language/Special Education, Eastern Michigan University
Teach graduate courses including Aphasia, Neuroanatomy/physiology, and Neurogenic Communication Disorders
- April, 1989 Clinical Speech/Language Pathologist to July, 1989 Residential Aphasia Program, Communicative Disorders Clinic, University of Michigan
May, 1987
to March, 1989 Department of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, University of Michigan Hospital
- 1978 - 1985 Sign Language Interpreter, Sign Language Instructor
Adult Education, San Diego, California
Provided sign language interpretation for the deaf in various community settings
Taught beginning sign language for adults

EDITORIAL EXPERIENCE

- 2011 to present Editorial Board, Journal of Interactional Research in Communication Disorders, Topics in Stroke Rehabilitation
- 2009 to present Guest Editor, Topics in Language Disorders, 2015, Vol 35, Issue 3; Topics in Stroke Rehabilitation, 2010, Volume 17, Issue 1. Lessons from the Narratives of Clients and Clinicians; Seminars in Speech and Language, 2010, Volume 31, Issue 2. The Tools of Our Trade: Ethics, Outcomes, and Effects of Therapeutic Discourse.

1995-present Reviewer
International Journal of Language & Communication Disorders, Journal of Speech, Language and Hearing Research (JSLHR), Aphasiology Journal, ASHA Leader Videotape and Book Reviews, American Journal of Speech-Language Pathology; Brain Impairment; Brain & Language

2002 to present Reviewer, Book Proposals, Lawrence Erlbaum Publishers, Wayne State University Press, Lippincott Williams & Wilkins, Oxford University Press

FUNDING ACTIVITY – ONGOING OR COMPLETED

Brice, A. E. (PI) & Hinckley, J. J. (Co-PI). BRIDGE: Building Research Initiatives by Developing Group Effort. A 2-year conference project that trains consumers (patient partners) and researchers to work together, then forges researcher-consumer teams to address relevant research issues in comparative effectiveness research for aphasia. Funding period October 2017 – September 2019, $224,000, Patient Centered Outcomes Research Institute (PCORI).

Hinckley, J. J. (2015-2017). Co-investigator, RELEASE (Rehabilitation and Recovery of People with Aphasia), National Institutes of Health Research (UK) subcontract, Collaboration of Aphasia Trialists. This is a big data project in which researchers from around the world contribute their research to a large international database. My subcontract prepares data from my previous treatment research to contribute to the database.

Douglas, N. & Hinckley, J. J. (2009). Narratives of Experienced Speech-Language Pathologists: Implications for Clinical Training. ASHA Special Interest Division 11 Research Grant, $1,500.

Hinckley, J. J. (2008). USF CAS Faculty Research and Development Award. “From Narrative Medicine to Narrative-Based Practice in Communication Sciences & Disorders”, $1,000.

Carr, T. H. & Hinckley, J. J. Applying cognitive neuroscience to aphasia rehabilitation: Intervention-induced plasticity of behavioral competence, cognitive computation, and neural substrate in adults and children. Funding period 1/1/98 through 12/31/99, with USF subcontract extension from 8/00 through 5/01, and extended through June, 2003, $60,000, James S. McDonnell Foundation.

Hinckley, J. J. International Faculty Travel Grant. Funding to support two invited papers in France and Italy, May-June, 2002, $1500. University of South Florida Division of Sponsored Research.

Hinckley, J. J. Patterns of change among aphasic adults associated with treatment type and amount. Funding period 5/1/00 through 4/31/01, $6,943. Research and Creative Scholarship Grant Program, University of South Florida Division of Sponsored Research.

Anderson, L. A., Hinckley, J. J. The application of sociolinguistic analysis to determine the pattern and content of physician-patient interactions: A pilot study. Funding period May, 1989 through June, 1991, $9,995, University of Michigan Office of the Vice President for Research - Small Scale Projects.

GRANT REVIEWS

Grant Reviewer and Site Visitor, National Institute of Disability, Independent Living, and Rehabilitation Research, 2015, 2016, 2017.
