

Reba Anderson Occupational Therapy Scholarship Fund Application Form

Reba Anderson, Ph.D., OTR, FAOTA, founding Professor of Nova Southeastern University's Department of Occupational Therapy, spearheaded a new entry-level Master of Occupational Therapy program in 1994 and was a devoted academician. Dr. Anderson saw the future and the potential of occupational therapy, by establishing professional programs to influence and improve practice. A true leader, Dr. Anderson created the Great Southern Conference to promote leadership in the Southern states that lacked state occupational therapy associations. She was a visionary and innovator at NSU by continuing her vision for exemplary occupational therapy education.

Personal Information:

Applicant Name: _____

Current Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip Code: _____

Mobile Phone: _____

Email: _____

NSU Student ID# N_____ Year of Entry into OT Program: _____

Academic Information: Current NSU Cumulative GPA: _____

Essay: The Reba Anderson Scholarship requires applicants to complete an essay of 500 words or less. The essay should emphasize why you, as a student, demonstrate leadership and innovation, in the spirit of Dr. Anderson, through your previous, current, and future contributions to the occupational therapy profession. Your essay should emphasize occupation as the core of your innovation and how your leadership serves the occupational therapy profession at large.

- I certify that all information this application provides is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge.
- I certify that this is my only application this year for this scholarship.

Signature of Applicant: _____ Date: _____

Application Checklist:

- Completed Application
- Letter of request and need
- Essay
- Signed letter of recommendation
- Copy of FAFSA form

The application package must be complete before consideration can occur.